

Longing For You

There's a longing in my soul for You
A desperate yearning deep within for You

I can't run away, I can't hide away
I can't look away from You from You

There's a longing for Your touch in my life
A desperate yearning for this world to be made right

I can't run away, I can't hide away
I can't look away from You from You

*Where else can I go, You are my life
Where else can I hide, You are the light
Where else can I go, You are my life
Where else can I hide, You are the light*
