

Psalm 34

I went looking for the Lord
I went knocking on His door and He opened, took me in
I looked right into His face
Saw the wonder of His grace, then He told me I was His

*Come taste and see how his love rescued me
No more sorrow, no more fear, no more shame, no more no more*

Oh magnify the Lord with me, exalt His name
And let His praises fill my mouth continually
Oh magnify the Lord with me, exalt His name
And let His praises fill my mouth continually

Those who look unto the Lord find what they've been searching for
They will lack for no good thing
If your soul is crushed in pain, go ahead call out His name
He is near to those in need

*Come taste and see how his love rescued me
No more sorrow, no more fear, no more shame, no more no more*

Oh magnify the Lord with me, exalt His name
And let His praises fill my mouth continually
Oh magnify the Lord with me, exalt His name
And let His praises fill my mouth continually

©2005 All Rights Reserved Words and music written by Ben Davis