

Ruined

Holy Spirit You are moving like mighty waters searching for low places
Holy Spirit You are crashing like waves all over my soul
Holy Spirit You are speaking with words that cannot fail
Changing me from who I was to who You called me to be

I'm ruined for anything else, I've tasted of Your unfailing love
I'm ruined for anything else, I've felt Your touch way down in my heart
I'm ruined for anything else, I've seen a glory greater than thousands of kings
I'm ruined for anything else
You've ruined me
You've ruined me
