

You Are Lord

Break open these rusty gates
Let the King walk inside
Make a home inside of my heart
From You I have nothing to hide

*You permeate the earth and all it's people
You made the rivers and the sky*

You are Lord, a capable defender
You are Lord, a powerful conqueror

Who is worthy to stand before You
Who can look You in the eye
None of us are blameless
No one that is pure
But You see promise in my life

*You permeate the earth and all it's people
You made the rivers and the sky*

You are Lord, a capable defender
You are Lord, a powerful conqueror
